Pupils will be taught to understand and respond to spoken and written language from a variety of authentic sources.
 Speak with increasing confidence, fluency and spontaneity, finding ways of communicating what they want to say, including through discussion and asking questions, and continually improving the accuracy of their pronunciation and intonation.
 They can write at varying length, for different purposes and audiences, using the variety of grammatical structures that they have learnt.
 Discover and develop an appreciation of a range of writing in the language studied.

I can use definite and indefinite articles in the singular with masculine and feminine nouns (un/une/le/la/).

I can start to use adjectival positioning.

I can use simple connectives 'et' (and) and 'mais' (but).

I can begin to use 'aussi' (also).

I can use plurals (parts of the body e.g. les yeux/les Oreilles) with definite article plural (les).

I can use adjectival positioning with more confidence.

I can use accents on the e and the a (grave and aigu) - préfères.

I can use the conjugation of jouer and faire (present tense).

I can use the plural agreement (e.g. une heure, deux heures).

I can use the conjugation of aller (present tense).

I can develop my knowledge of further work on accents.

I can start to use à la/au.

I can consolidate the use of masculine and feminine words.

"Language is the road map of a culture. It tells you where its people come from and where they are going."
